

Figure 1 illustrates the application of the first four rules of the algorithm to a 5-variable function. The sequence of Karnaugh maps shows the initial function and the step-by-step simplification process, resulting in the final simplified function.